HOW DOES IT WORK ?

1 year before the election, candidates announce that they are running for president.

Then, candidates give speeches to convince people to take side for them. They say what they are going to do to get the country out of its problems and they fight each others in debates to give new ideas on some issues that lead the country

In RED are the states still using the caucus system

After, the citizens United States have to fo vote for two differents parties by two differents ways.

By a caucus system where voters openly decide who they support by standing their hands in a big place.

Or by a ballot system called «The Primaries» where voters go to the pools and put the name of their favorite candidate on a paper and leave it in a ballot box.

Finaly on November 8th, the next president of the United States will be elected and he will normally stay the leader until the next elections in 2020.

Then each party choose one person to represent those parties.

Donald John Trump was born on June 14, 1946 in New York.
He's multi-billionaire, owner of some big towers in the US.
He represents the Grand Old Party (the republicans) which consists of :

- _lower taxes
- _build a wall between USA and Mexico
- _expel illegal immigrants

Hillary Diane Rodham Clinton was born on October 26, 1947 in Chicago, married to Bill Clinton.
She's the first Lady and the Federal Secretary of the US.
She represents the democratic party which consists of :

- _A fair tax system
- _keeping the homeland safe
- _immigration change
